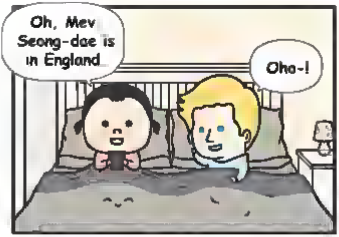
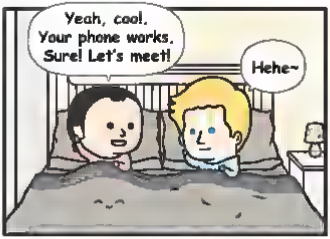
Tales of Penguin: Part 1

Penguin I'm in England!

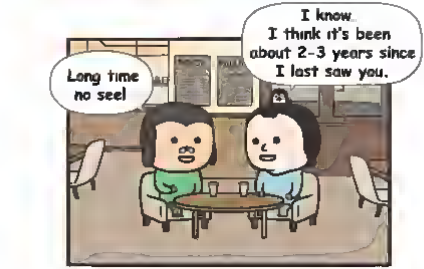


Two weeks ago,
Peguin heard some good news!



So, a week later, on Wednesday

In London I met my dear cartoonist friend, Seongdae who is drawing 'Tales of the Unusual'.



Of course it was very nice to see him.

But also I felt thankful to him that he thought about me in his precious vacation time.

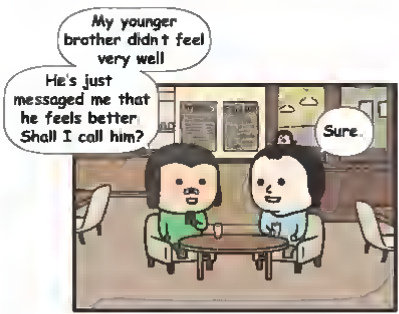
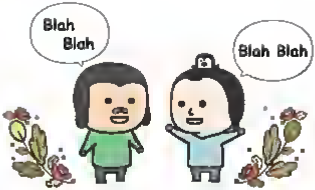
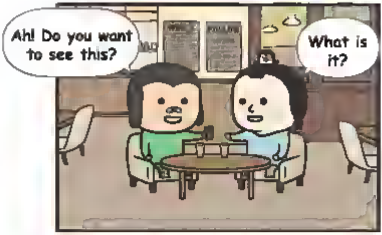
Anyway,

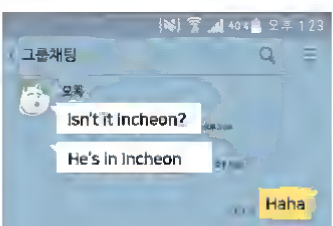
Seongdae is taking a month break from his cartoon and traveling Europe with his two brothers.



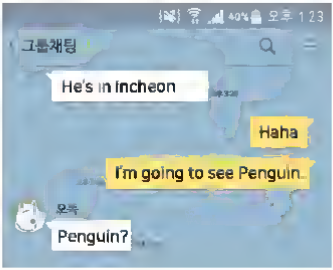


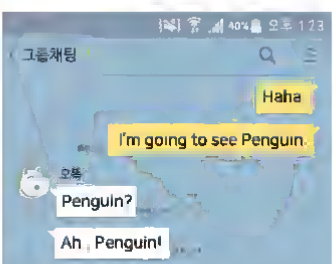
While we were waiting for Seongdae's brothers, we talked about many things.





They were talking about Seongdae's vacation.





At that moment, cartoonist Omyo
(The Stories of Those around Me) said
